

Important Alert: Beware of Fraudulent WhatsApp Groups Impersonating JVSakk

Dear Valued Clients and Visitors,

We have recently become aware of unauthorized WhatsApp groups falsely claiming affiliation with the JVSakk Group. These WhatsApp groups are disseminating online learning materials, research reports, stock recommendations, and encouraging participants to open trading accounts. This is a fraudulent scheme designed to mislead and potentially exploit individuals.

Official Statement:

- We do not have any affiliates registered under the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS).
- We do not have staff or representatives creating investment WhatsApp groups or providing investment tips in Singapore or elsewhere.
- Any such groups, materials, or recommendations claiming to be from JVSakk are unauthorized and fraudulent. We do not endorse or participate in these activities.

We strongly advise against engaging with these groups, sharing personal information, or acting on any advice provided. Participating could lead to financial loss or other risks. JVSakk will not be liable for any consequences arising from these impersonations.

If you encounter such groups or suspect fraudulent activity using our name:

- Do not respond or provide any details.
- Report it to the relevant authorities, such as the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS) or local law enforcement.
- Contact us immediately for verification using our official channels.

For legitimate inquiries, please reach out via our official email info@jvsakk.com.

At JVSakk, we are committed to protecting our clients and the public from scams. Thank you for your vigilance.

Best regards,

The JVSakk Group
